

Master of Theology (Th.M.)

YELLOWSTONE
Theological Institute
EST. 2012

The Master of Theology is the highest degree offered by Yellowstone Theological Institute and prepares students for a variety of careers, most notably as a teacher at Bible college or similar training position. The degree is typically earned in 18 to 24 months. It is primarily for students who have already earned a Master of Arts or Master of Divinity degree. Incoming Master of Theology students who have already earned a master's degree in Bible or theology will complete a total of 18 hours of seminars and thesis work. Students lacking an adequate background in biblical and theological studies will be required to complete an additional 18 hours of levelling courses for a total of 36 hours.

Course Format

5-day residential intensives either in person or online via live video. Select classes offered as weekly night courses.

All students must attend at least one course in Bozeman each year. Some courses are offered only as residential courses; see course descriptions for details.
